WITH WIN NO. 100 IN SIGHT, NO. 22 WVU HOSTS ETSU

The No. 22 West Virginia University men's soccer team hosts ETSU on Friday, September 9, at 7 p.m. ET, as Marlon LeBlanc goes for his 100th victory as WVU head coach.

Friday night is True Blue match and Alumni Association Night at Dick Dlesk Soccer Stadium. Fans are encouraged to wear blue to cheer on the Mountaineers, and special events are planned for WVU Alumni Association members. Tickets can be purchased online at WVUGAME.com, by calling 1-800-WVU GAME or at the ticket office before the match. Free parking is available at the Natatorium/Band lot, adjacent to DDSS.

"ETSU is a high-scoring team," coach Marlon LeBlanc said. "They've scored a bunch of goals the last two games, so we're going to have to be at our best. We're going to need to be clicking and have Mountaineer Nation behind us, that's for sure. We're looking forward to playing at home again."

LeBlanc, in his 11th season, enters Friday's match with a 99-72-27 record with the Mountaineers. He is one win shy of becoming the second WVU men's soccer coach to ever reach the 100-win plateau.

Both the Mountaineers (2-1) and Buccaneers (2-1) enter Friday's match having won their last two matches. WVU is coming off a pair of 1-0 triumphs, vs. No. 7 Georgetown and at home against Princeton. ETSU earned a 4-2 win over George Mason before a 1-0 win against Appalachian State.

Sophomore midfielder Tucker Stephenson has scored both of WVU's goals this season and has four in his career, all game-winners. Three players, juniors Joey Piatczyc and Louis Thomas and freshman Sebastian Garcia-Herreros, have all netted assists. In goal, junior Jose Santos owns a 2-1 record, has back-to-back shutouts and did not face a shot on goal in each of the last two matches.

SCOUTING ETSU

ETSU comes to Morgantown with a 2-1 record, having won its last two, 4-2 against George Mason and 1-0 over Appalachian State. The Bucs opened the year with a 5-1 loss at High Point. This week, midfielder Cameron Woodfin was named the SoCon Player of the Week after scoring a pair of goals and notching an assist in ETSU's wins over Mason and Appalachian State.

The Buccaneers are led by third-year head coach Bo Oshoniyi. He owns a 17-18-5 mark at ETSU after going 8-7-4 a season ago and falling in the SoCon Championship Game.

SERIES HISTORY VS. THE BUCCANEERS

Friday night marks the first-ever meeting between WVU and ETSU. Against current members of the Southern Conference, WVU owns a 3-1 record, going 1-1 against UNC Greensboro and 2-0 vs. Furman. Both matches against UNCG came at home, including a 1-0 victory in 2015.

UP NEXT: VS. UMBC

LAST TIME OUT: HOME-OPENING WIN

West Virginia held Princeton to just one shot on its way to a 1-0 victory on Saturday night. Sophomore midfielder Tucker Stephenson netted his second goal in as many matches and the defense put up record-tying numbers to lead the Mountaineers to their second consecutive win.

WVU held the Tigers to one shot in the match and no shots on goal. It marks the third time in program history that WVU has held the opposition to just one shot in a contest and the first since 1994. Princeton's zero shots on goal also ties a WVU record, set on seven previous occasions, including in last Sunday's upset win over No. 7 Georgetown.

Stephenson's goal came in the 43rd minute on a set piece. A free kick was awarded to the Mountaineers about 30 yards out on the left side. Junior midfielder Joey Piatczyc sent the kick into the box, directly to Stephenson who headed it in.

Stephenson finished with a team-high four shots, and the only shot on goal of the match. Piatczyc and senior defender Jack Elliott both had three shots in the contest. WVU held a 14-1 advantage in shots and a 1-0 edge in shots on goal.

2016 BEGINS WITH AN UPSET

WVU opened the season at the Akron Classic in Akron, Ohio. After falling to No. 9 Seattle in the season opener, West Virginia earned a 1-0 upset victory over No. 7 Georgetown on Sunday.

It was the highest-ranked team West Virginia had beaten since taking down No. 1 UConn at home in 2011. The win was WVU's first against a top-10 foe since the Mountaineers won at No. 8 Indiana in 2013 and the first neutral-site ranked win since 2011 against No. 11 Virginia.

Sophomore midfielder Tucker Stephenson scored in the 81st minute to break a scoreless tie after the Mountaineers played right with the Hoyas for the first 80 minutes. Junior defender Louis Thomas and freshman defender Sebastian Garcia-Herrerros recording assists. It was Stephenson's third career goal, all game-winning tallies, while it was the first assist of Garcia-Herrerros' collegiate career.

The Mountaineer defense held the Hoyas to just three shots, none on goal. It marked the seventh time in program history West Virginia allowed no shots on goal and the 20th time an opposing team had three or fewer shots against WVU.

Stephenson, along with senior defender Jack Elliott and junior midfielder Jad Arslan were named to the Akron Classic All-Tournament Team.

WVU VOTED THIRD IN MAC POLL

In a vote among the league's coaches, WVU was picked to finish third in the Mid-American Conference Preseason Poll. Akron was voted to win the league, with 29 points and five first-place votes, while Western Michigan was second.

2016 MAC COACHES PRESEASON POLL

Team (First Place Votes)	Points
1. Akron (5)	29
2. Western Michigan (1)	17
3. West Virginia	16
4. Buffalo	15
5. Bowling Green	11
6. Northern Illinois	2

A SEASON OF ASSISTS

Joey Piatczyc notched a school-record 13 assists as a sophomore in 2015, a total that ranked No. 2 in the country. He had two multi-assist matches, and six of his 13 assists resulted in game-winning goals, also a school record. His 17 points were best on the team.

The record-setting assist came in the regular season finale on Nov. 5. Off a free kick on the left side from 30 yards out, Piatczyc sent a shot towards the net. Jack Elliott was standing eight yards out on the left side of the goal and headed it in.

In WVU's 6-0 win over San Francisco on Aug. 30, Piatczyc posted a program-record four assists. In WVU history, 14 players had tallied three assists in a game, but Piatczyc became the first to record four helpers in a contest.

After his record match, Piatczyc was rewarded with several honors. He was named to the Top Drawer Soccer Team of the Week, in addition to earning Student-Athlete of the Week accolades by WVU Athletics. He was also nominated for the Hero Sports Division I Men's Soccer Stud of the Week.

WVU HONORED FOR ACADEMICS

For the eighth consecutive year, WVU earned an NSCAA Team Academic Award for its team grade point average, the National Soccer Coaches Association of America announced on Wednesday. The Mountaineers were recognized as one of 306 men's teams to earn a 3.0 GPA or higher during the 2014-15 academic year. A total of 859 teams (306 men, 553 women) were honored by the NSCAA with a team GPA of 3.0 or higher. WVU is one of 211 schools to have both its men's and women's programs honored.

HOME SWEET HOME

In the past six seasons, the WVU men's soccer team holds a 43-14-3 record at home, including 13-straight victories from 2010-11.

2014	7-2-0
2015	6-4-0

TWO OR MORE = VICTORY

Since Marlon LeBlanc's arrival in 2006, the Mountaineers are 64-9-4 when they have scored at least two goals in a game.

The first loss came to Akron in the second round of the 2010 NCAA tournament, while WVU also fell to Elon in 2012. While West Virginia suffered four defeats in 2014 and three in 2015 when it scored at least two goals, the first in 2014 came to No. 9 UC Irvine, 3-2, two of the seven came in overtime periods and four occurred away from home.

FACING THE MINIMUM

The West Virginia defense has provided plenty of help to the WVU goalkeepers in Marlon LeBlanc's 11 seasons.

Opponents have averaged fewer than 12.5 shots per game every year of LeBlanc's tenure, and in seven of his first 10 seasons the opposition has averaged fewer than five shots on goal in a game.

This year's defense has been especially good. In WVU's win over No. 7 Georgetown on Aug. 28, the Mountaineer defense held the Hoyas to just three shots, none on goal. The following match, WVU held Princeton to just one shot, which was not on goal. It marked the eighth time in program history West Virginia allowed no shots on goal and the first time WVU allowed just one shot in a match.

YEAR	AVG. OPP. SHOTS	AVG. OPP. SOG
2007	11.1	4.2

PACKING THE HOUSE

A big reason for WVU's success at home is the support of the Mountaineer fans at Dick Dlesk Soccer Stadium. Last year, West Virginia was second in the league with an average of 699 fans per game. A total of 6,993 fans filled the stands in 2015 in 10 home matches.

SCHEDULE BREAKDOWN

The Mountaineers annually have one of the toughest schedules in the country, and this season's 16-match slate proves to be no different.

WVU will face four teams that made the NCAA Tournament last season, with all four advancing to the NCAA Tournament Third Round or later.

Four of WVU's 2016 opponents are ranked in the NSCAA preseason poll, all in the top 15. The matches against ranked foes begin with the season-opening weekend against No. 14 Seattle and No. 10 Georgetown, in Akron, Ohio. At home, the Mountaineers will play No. 2 Akron and No. 4 Maryland.

"We've certainly been known year in and year out to play one of the best non-conference schedules in the country, and this is no different than any other year," LeBlanc said. "Our players came here to play in big games and big moments. We could schedule differently, but at the end of the day, these kids want to play in big matches. Having Georgetown on the schedule, having Maryland come to Morgantown as a national champion contender, those are big ones. Our game is littered with top-level opponents and we're certainly looking forward to the challenge that that's going to bring."

A total of nine regular-season matches will be played at home, accounting for nearly 60 percent of WVU's matches. The home slate features five- and four-match homestands.

"We have a string of a number of games that are going to be here in Morgantown," LeBlanc said. "Over the last decade, we've elevated the program in the community and in our campus as being one of the teams that our fans love to come out and watch. We draw big crowds, and we have fantastic support from the Mountaineer Maniacs and the community. For me, it's been a wonderful evolution to see how much soccer has grown in West Virginia and how much support our kids get. Without a doubt, Dick Dlesk Soccer Stadium is one of the toughest places to come in and get a result, and we're glad that we get to have that advantage here at home."

SEASON PREVIEW

The West Virginia University men's soccer team is hungry.

Hungry to improve upon a 7-12 season a year ago. Hungry to get back to its winning ways and be on the right side of the win-loss column.

It's a team with a unique mix of 15 returning players, many who were major contributors last season, and 14 newcomers.

As coach Marlon LeBlanc begins his 11th season at the helm, he is looking forward to seeing the continued development of the 15 veterans, and is equally excited for what the newcomers bring to Morgantown.

"We had such a big senior class last year, but what we're returning is a lot of players who contributed quite a few minutes. Yes, we're going to be young this year, but all those returners were major players on our team last year, so the cabinet is not empty.

"We have a hungry group that was disappointed with the results we had last year. This group understands that we didn't play poorly last year. Our record wasn't indicative of the type of team we were. We had some massive errors in big games that cost us results. You can end up on the right side or the wrong side, and last year we ended up on the wrong side too often. Because of that, this is a hungry group that is certainly very inspired heading into the season."

The returning players are headlined by junior Joey Piatczyc, who finished No. 2 in the country last year with a school-record 13 assists; senior Jack Elliott, who was an Academic All-American a year ago; and sophomore Tucker Stephenson, who had a breakout freshman campaign. That list also includes seniors Felix Angerer, Mike Desiderio and Christian Diaz and junior Louis Thomas, who played key minutes last year.

FORWARDS

While West Virginia is tasked with replacing its top two goal scorers from a year ago in Jamie Merriam and Ryan Cain, WVU had a productive spring scoring goals.

LeBlanc and the Mountaineers have options to replace the departing duo, who accounted for 13 of WVU's 32 goals in 2015.

"Up front, we have to replace Jamie Merriam and Ryan Cain," LeBlanc said. "They provided quite a bit of offense for us. This spring though, we scored quite a few goals, and that often came through Felix Angerer. He had a wonderful spring season after trying to get himself acclimated in the fall. I certainly think we have found a target center-forward who can score goals at this level and score quite a few of them. We're very excited about Felix up there."

Angerer, a senior from Bayreuth, Germany, scored two goals and added a pair of assists in 15 matches last year. He'll be joined by sophomore Rushawn Larmond, who found the back of the net three times in 12 matches in 2015.

"Rushawn Larmond returns for his sophomore year after scoring a few times as a freshman," LeBlanc added. "He missed quite a bit of the spring, but he's back at full strength and will be another player, along with Felix, who gives us the option to play as a single forward or as a pair. Rushawn provides a great amount of speed up front and is clinical in front of the goal.

"Those two are the leading returning candidates, and with a few young guys coming in, we certainly think we have some ability to score goals. Scoring hasn't been our problem. We've been a pretty high goal-scoring team the past few years. We anticipate we have enough attacking weapons to do the same this year."

Angerer and Larmond could be joined up front by juniors Jad Arslan and Heath Honold and freshman Kyle Davis.

MIDFIELDERS

The midfield is headlined by Piatczyc. The Lee's Summit, Missouri, native has his name plastered throughout the record books after posting a WVU-record 13 assists as a sophomore.

Piatczyc's total ranked No. 2 in the country and was highlighted by a school-record, four-assist match against San Francisco on Aug. 30. He had two multi-assist matches, and six of his 13 assists resulted in game-winning goals, also a school record. His 17 points were best on the team.

Piatczyc is one of 14 midfielders on the roster, nine of them returners.

"Most of the midfield is back, and that's the crux, including the top play-maker in the country last year in Joey Piatczyc," LeBlanc said. "He's the guy who's the provider and makes things tick for us in the attack. We'll lean on our captain to do the damage from midfield again there."

Another key returner is sophomore Tucker Stephenson, who played in all 19 matches and registered two goals and three assists as a freshman to tie for fourth on the team with seven points.

"Tucker Stephenson is back in the midfield after playing quite a few minutes as a freshman last year," LeBlanc said. "Jad Arslan returns for his junior year, Heath Honold is back. Mike Desiderio and Christian Diaz are seniors. We've got some very good players coming back, and we think that bodes well for us in terms of experience in our system and how we want to play."

Arslan played in 17 contests and had two goals and two assists as a sophomore, while Honold played in 14 matches with three assists, also as a sophomore. Desiderio, who had two goals and three assists, and Diaz, with one assist, return for their final seasons in the Gold and Blue.

The newcomers feature Antonio Bachmann, Luca Barbaris, Ben Boone, Jake Coale and Ethan Shim.

"Again, I think we've added some very nice pieces into that midfield who are going to make it very difficult to zero in on any one player," LeBlanc said. "Going forward, we can score goals and attack in numbers. We anticipate that midfield and front line will be able to do the same in 2016."

DEFENSE

Senior Jack Elliott and junior Louis Thomas anchor the defensive core for the Mountaineers in 2016. They are two of 11 defenders on the team, along with fellow returners and seniors Griffin Libhart and Trevor Moon, and Zion Gray.

"The defending is something that statistically, we were pretty good at last year, limiting shots and shots on goal," LeBlanc said. "The problem is we conceded far too many goals. We look at that as a team-wide thing. We expect our midfielders to help our defenders even more, and we need our defenders to shut down our opponents and limit shots even more than we did last year.

"Louis Thomas is back in the back four. Jack Elliott is back. We brought in a great addition in Albert Andres-Llop from Vila-Real, Spain, who spent the entire spring semester with us, so he has that under his belt already. He's joined by one of the top Division II players, an All-American in Steven James, who led Louisburg College to the Division II national championship.

"Our young players also include Ryan Kellogg, who was Sporting KC's Young Player of the Year, Logan Lucas, who was on that same Sporting KC team and Zion Gray, who had a fantastic spring in the back. We've got some very good, seasoned players. Trevor Moon will be a senior who's got some experience. We like the makeup of our back four. We like the options that we have to shuffle things around there."

GOALKEEPERS

Three players are fighting for the starting goalkeeper position, two after redshirting in their first year at WVU in 2015 and one newcomer. The returners are redshirt junior Stephen Banick and redshirt freshman Konrad Dzedzic, while junior Jose Santos comes to WVU after transferring from Tyler Community College.

Santos was the starting goalkeeper on Tyler's team last year that advanced to the NJCAA finals.

"The goalkeeping, we've had some hiccups there the last couple of seasons," LeBlanc said. "We have three new guys battling for time in there this season. Two of those players redshirted last season, Stephen Banick and Konrad Dzedzic. They're back and vying for the No. 1 spot, along with freshman Jose Santos. We're looking forward to that competition for those three to really battle it out for the No. 1 shirt. If we can do a good job in the goal, the sky's the limit for that group, and this team."
