MOUNTAINEERS AT BIG 12s

West Virginia heads to the Big 12 Championship for the fifth time since joining the league in 2012. The Mountaineers posted fourth-place finishes in 2013, 2014 and 2015. The league added Air Force, Utah Valley, Northern Colorado, North Dakota State, South Dakota State and Wyoming as affiliate members in 2016, with WVU claiming sixth at the 10-team tournament that season. The Mountaineers have never produced a Big 12 champion.

SMITH ENTERS AS TOP SEED

For the second straight year, Jacob A. Smith enters the tournament as the top seed at 197 pounds, according to the pre-seeds released on Monday. Smith brings an 18-4 overall mark, going 4-0 against Big 12 opponents this season. He boasts a 12-match winning streak to start the championship. Smith needs a top-five finish to earn his third straight NCAA bid.

COTTRELL LOOKS FOR THIRD NCAA BID

After taking third at 157 pounds in 2016 to qualify for NCAAs, Dylan Cottrell will look to earn his third national championship bid this weekend. With a 15-4 record, he was awarded the No. 2 seed at 165 pounds earlier this week. Cottrell qualified for the 2014 NCAA Championships at 149 pounds while at App. State before competing at 157 at WVU last season. Missing part of the season with a minor injury, he is 2-2 in Big 12 action but enters the tournament on a seven-match win streak.

CONFERENCE ALLOCATIONS ANNOUNCED

Conference allocations for the 2017 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships, as well as the third edition of the NCAA Coaches' Rankings Panel and RPI Rankings were announced by the NCAA on Thursday. The Big 12 was awarded 38 automatic qualifying spots, third most behind the Big Ten (77) and Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association (42). The 165-pound weight class will qualify the top six finishers at the 2017 Big 12 Championship – the most of any weight class. A weight-by-weight breakdown is listed below. Each qualifying tournament received spots based on each athlete's Division I winning percentage, the coaches' rankings and the ratings percentage index (RPI). Leagues were awarded one qualifying spot for each wrestler who reached threshold in two of three categories. Qualifying spots will be awarded to wrestlers based on qualifying tournament finish, regardless of whether or not they met the threshold. Following the completion of qualifying events, the NCAA Division I Wrestling Committee will select the remaining 49 at-large qualifiers. Selections will be made based on the following criteria: head-to-head competition, quality wins, coaches' ranking, results against common opponents, RPI, qualifying event placement and winning percentage. At-large selections will be announced on March 7.

MOUNTAINEERS IN PLACE TO QUALIFY

A pair of Mountaineers rank in the top-33 of their respective weights in the coaches' rankings. Jacob A. Smith is No. 5 at 197 pounds, while Dylan Cottrell is No. 11 at 165 pounds. Cory Stainbrook joins Smith and Cottrell in the RPI rankings. Cottrell ranks at No. 7 at 165, with Smith coming in at No. 8 at 197, and Stainbrook at No. 26 in the 133-pound rankings.

MOUNTAINEERS CLAIM FIRST BIG 12 WIN

WVU is coming off an historic 22-20 win over Iowa State last weekend in Morgantown. Trailing by 11 team points with three bouts remaining, Parker VonEgidy won in sudden victory at 184 while Jacob A. Smith added a major at 197 as the team found itself down 20-16. Freshman heavyweight Brandon Ngati then pinned Joe Scanlan in the second period for his second win of the season, giving the Mountaineers the win. It marked the first Big 12 dual match win in WVU program history.

SENIOR NIGHT

West Virginia will hold its annual Senior Night recognition against Edinboro on Friday. Seniors will be honored following every other bout. Nine Mountaineers will finish their WVU career at the end of the season: Dylan Cottrell, Cory Stainbrook, Tony DeAngelo,

SMITH 4-0 IN BIG 12 ACTION

Jacob A. Smith led WVU with a 4-0 mark at 197 in the regular season. Smith claimed a 2-1 win over OSU's Derek White before adding a 3-1 decision over No. 20 Brad Johnson of OU. He later added a win by injury default over SDSU's Nate Rotert before taking a major decision against Iowa State's Marcus Harrington. The Charleston, West Virginia, native went undefeated in Big 12 matches last year and entered the 2016 Big 12 Championships as the No. 1 seed. Smith leads the squad with 18 wins on the season, 17 of which have come against Division I wrestlers.

COUNT 'EM

The Mountaineers used three bonus-point victories on their way to Sunday's win. In addition to Ngati's fall at heavyweight and Smith's 12-0 major decision at 197, Dylan Cottrell returned after a short absence and won by fall at 165 pounds. Cottrell is now tied with Cory Stainbrook and Christian Monserrat for the team lead with three pins. He leads WVU with six bonus-point victories on the season: three falls, two tech. falls and a major decision.

SMITH, NGATI HONORED

A historic win garnered honors for a pair of Mountaineers. Smith was named the Big 12 Co-Wrestler of the Week, while Ngati was named WVU Co-Student-Athlete of the Week. Smith went 2-0 with a win by injury default over No. 7 Nate Rotert of South Dakota State in addition to Sunday's major decision. It marked the second time this season and the fourth time in his career Smith has earned the honor. Ngati went 1-1 on the week. His pin reached No. 5 on the NCAA's Top 10 plays of the week and was also mentioned as a top moment by The Open Mat.

SMITH WINS 10 STRAIGHT

Smith picked up his 10th straight win and his fourth straight in Big 12 action. The redshirt junior boasts a team-best 16-4 mark overall, and for the second straight season will cap the regular season undefeated in league matches.

COTTRELL, SMITH REMAIN NATIONALLY RANKED

Combining for a trio of wins last week, Cottrell and Smith remain ranked in the top-20 of their respective weights in the latest NCAA Division I wrestling rankings released on Tuesday. After missing back-to-back matches, Cottrell returned to the mat on Sunday against Iowa State and picked up a second-period fall of Logan Breitenbach at 165 pounds. He moved up to No. 11 in InterMat's rankings and moves one spot from No. 20 to No. 19 according to FloWrestling. Cottrell, who leads the team with six bonus-point victories, remains at No. 15 according to The Open Mat. At 13-4 on the season, he ranks at No. 12 in the NCAA Division I Coaches' Rankings, announced on Feb. 10. Smith went 2-0 at 197 pounds in Big 12 action on the week, earning Big 12 Co-Wrestler of the Week accolades for the second time this season. The redshirt junior defeated No. 7 Nate Rotert of South Dakota State by injury default on Thursday before downing Iowa State's Marcus Harrington in a 12-0 major decision. Smith remains at No. 5 in both InterMat's and FloWrestling's rankings at 197 pounds and moves from No. 9 to No. 6 according to The Open Mat. He boasts a team-best 16 wins on the season and was rated at No. 5 in the second edition of the NCAA Division I Coaches' Panel Rankings Index.

SAMMIE HENSON
Head Coach | Third Season
Missouri, 1995

- World Champion
- Olympic Silver Medalist
- World Bronze Medalist
- 2x NCAA Champion
- 71-0 at Clemson
- Head Coach - Sunkist

Sammie Henson was named the eighth head coach in WVU program history in May of 2014, and is quickly bringing the program to new heights.

Henson brought with him a 17-year streak of All-Americans, having coached a total of 20 with five NCAA national champions. In Morgantown, he was challenged with the task of extending that streak in a program that hadn't had a wrestler finish in the top eight since 2007. He succeeded.

Pulling freshman Zeke Moisey's redshirt two weeks into the season proved to be one of the most crucial decisions of Henson's career. Entering the 2015 NCAA National Championships unseeded, Moisey put together an historic run, upsetting the No. 15, No. 2 and No. 7 seeds to become WVU's first All-American since Brandon Rader in 2007. He then went on to pin No. 6 Thomas Gilman of Iowa in 52 seconds in the semifinals to become the first unseeded wrestler to advance to the finals since 2003. Moisey dropped a 9-5 decision to No. 4 Nathan Tomasello of Ohio State to cap his season as the NCAA runner-up.

However, the turnaround of the WVU wrestling program started long before the NCAA Championships. The Sammie Henson era opened in Morgantown on November 13, when the Mountaineers hosted former WVU assistant and the Arizona State Sun Devils at the WVU Coliseum. Though the Sun Devils took the match, 19-13, the match in front of 1,200 fans rejuvenated interest in the program. The team went on to place a trio of wrestlers on the podium at the Cliff Keen Invitational, with the 16th-place finish marking WVU's best showing since 2007. In dual action, the Mountaineers topped No. 25 Bucknell in early January, briefly entering the NCAA top-25 that month, before ending the regular season with a win at No. 18 Pitt. It was the first time since 2007 WVU had taken the annual Backyard Brawl. In between, the Mountaineers sought revenge on ASU, twice taking victories from the Sun Devils.

West Virginia put together its best-ever showing at the Big 12 Championship in March, accruing a team-high 35 points with four finalists. A.J. Vizcarrondo became the program's first ever two-time Big 12 finalist and was the runner-up at heavyweight for the second straight year. He was joined on the podium by Moisey (runner-up 125), Roman Perryman (runner-up at 149), Jake A. Smith (runner-up at 197) and Bubba Scheffel (third at 184).

Along with senior Michael Morales (149), Smith, Moisey and Scheffel earned at-large bids to nationals. The four combined to post eight wins, marking WVU's best finish in 10 years. The Mountaineers finished in 20th place with 23.5 points, their first top-25 finish since 2005, helping Henson earn Amateur Wrestling News Rookie Coach of the Year accolades.

In 2016, Henson guided a pair of in-state natives to the NCAA Championship. Jacob A. Smith of Charleston and Dylan Cotrell of Morgantown spent the season inside the nation's top-20 of their respective weights. The duo, along with Bubba Scheffel, qualified for the 2016 NCAA Championships at Madison Square Garden. In addition, the Mountaineers knocked off nationally ranked rival Pitt for the second straight year and picked up a win over Edinboro to cap the regular season.

In addition to his work with the Mountaineers, Henson started the Mountaineer Regional Training Center, drawing a number of national and international-level wrestlers to Morgantown to train. In the summer of 2014, he guided assistant coach Nick Marable to a spot on the U.S. World Team, and continues to coach Marable, former Olympian Clarissa Chun and national team member Jessica Medina through the MRTC.

A native of St. Charles, Mo., Henson came to WVU from Missouri, where he spent two seasons as head assistant coach. In just two seasons at Missouri, he assisted in producing the No. 2-ranked recruiting class in the nation in 2013 in addition to leading the Tigers to two consecutive conference titles and seven All-America finishes, including one national champion this past season.

Prior to Missouri, Henson was the assistant head coach at Oklahoma from 2009-11. While there, he helped secure the No. 2 recruiting class in the country, coached seven wrestlers to All-America status at the NCAA Championships and helped the program become the top academic squad in the Big 12 during his tenure. Before Henson arrived at Oklahoma, the Sooners hadn't had an All-American in two years.

Prior to his stint with Oklahoma, Henson served as the head assistant at Cal Poly (2007-09), volunteer assistant at Nebraska (2006-07), along with stops as an assistant at Army (2002-03) and Penn State (2000-02).

During his time at Penn State, Henson assisted head coach Troy Sunderland in taking the Nittany Lions from 35th in the country to sixth with a pair of top-five recruiting classes in just two years. He has mentored numerous national champions, such as Michael Lightner (Oklahoma), Byron Tucker (Oklahoma), Paul Donahoe (Nebraska) and J'den Cox (Missouri), along with several All-Americans, Big 12 Champions, Big 10 Champions and Pac 12 Champions, including: Shane and Dane Valdez (Oklahoma), Witt Durden (Oklahoma) and Josh and Scott Moore (Penn State), Chad Mendes (Cal Poly), Chase Pami (Cal Poly), Boris Novachkov (Cal Poly), Jarrod Patterson (Oklahoma), Zach Bailey (Oklahoma), Kyle Terry (Oklahoma), Tyler Caldwell (Oklahoma) and Eric Lapotsky (Oklahoma).

Henson has been widely recognized as one of the elite assistant coaches in the country. Tim Foley of InterMat rated him as the best in the nation in an article from 2010, stating that "Henson's intensity is legendary and seemingly always transferred to his grapplers. There is nothing coincidental about his arrival in Norman and the Sooners impressive 2009-2010 turnaround."

Along with collegiate coaching, Henson is also the current head coach for the Sunkist Kids Wrestling Club, which has more current world and Olympic wrestlers than any other wrestling club in the United States. Out of the seven freestyle wrestlers who represented Team USA at the 2012 Olympic Games in London, three came from the Sunkist Kids. Included in that group is Olympic gold medalist Jordan Burroughs at 74 kg/163 lbs. Also representing the United States in the Olympics in 2012 were Sam Hazewenkil (55 kg/121.3 lbs. and Tervel Dlagnev (120 kg/264.6 lbs.).

Henson's resume as a competitor speaks for itself. He went on to become one of the most celebrated wrestlers in the history of the United States, as one of just a few wrestlers in USA history to earn three world medals. In 1998, Henson became a world champion for Team USA at the World Wrestling Championships, in Tehran, Iran, which eventually led to him winning the John Smith Award for USA Wrestler of the Year. He earned a silver medal at the 2000 Olympic Games at 55 kg (121 lbs.) in Sydney, Australia, and won the bronze medal at the 2006 World Wrestling Championships at 35 years of age.

Additionally, Henson was named USOC Athlete of the Month of September 1998, and was a finalist for the Sullivan Award in 1999 for his efforts in the World Championships. In all, Henson has won more than 15 freestyle titles at the international level.

Henson started his collegiate wrestling career at Missouri, where he was a Big Eight Champion and All-American for Missouri in 1991. He then transferred to Clemson, where he became a two-time NCAA Champion, finishing his career with a 71-0 record. He was named as Clemson's Male Athlete of the Year in 1994 and was inducted into the Clemson Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000. Henson returned to Missouri in 1995 to earn a degree in parks, recreation and tourism management.

Henson and his wife, Stephanie, have four children: Jackson, Wyatt, Ruby and Georgia-Kate. They also have two dogs Biggie Smalls and Nelly.
